++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells and heavy showers. Gales easing.

Today:
Brief sunny spells this morning and frequent, occasionally heavy blustery showers. The showers should become less frequent during the afternoon with more in the way of sunshine. Windy start with northwesterly gales easing. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
A mix of clear spells and showers this evening. Overnight the showers become increasingly isolated and mostly confined to Shetland. Occasionally strong northwesterly winds, easing across Orkney. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Monday:
One or two showers at first, perhaps wintry over Shetland, otherwise a bright day with some good spells of sunshine. Occasionally fresh northwesterly winds slowly easing. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Cloudy with occasional rain Tuesday, but brighter in afternoon across Orkney. Orkney looks dry and bright on Wednesday, with Shetland cloudier with patchy rain. Then cloudy with drizzle on Thursday.
